 Yd: 322	 Yd: 298	 Yd: 265

Hole 2 par 4 – Large cedar tree on right side of fairway prevents direct approach to green. Small elevated green tough to hit and hold.

 Yd: 380	 Yd: 369	 Yd: 289
 Yd: 289	 Yd: 235	 Yd: 235

Hole 3 par 3 – Faces a westerly wind. Large bunkers right and left at the green.

Hole 4 par 4 – Considered one of the easiest holes on the course, the drive has to be well placed on right side. Fairway slopes to left rough with bunker on left of green. Out of bounds back of green.

 Yd: 361	 Yd: 348	 Yd: 348
 Yd: 281	 Yd: 277	 Yd: 238

Hole 5 par 4 – Down hill all the way but a big hook will find much trouble. Small green with bunkers left and right.

 Yd: 406	 Yd: 394	 Yd: 357
 Yd: 328	 Yd: 304	 Yd: 273

Hole 6 par 4 – “The Monster” appropriately called by everyone who plays it. One of the toughest par fours in state. Big lake requires 210 yds over water carry for proper position for second shot, which is blind to elevated green, bunkered left and right. Out of bounds on or across the road behind green.

 Yd: 402	 Yd: 390	 Yd: 333
 Yd: 306	 Yd: 252	 Yd: 252

Hole 7 par 5 – Good birdie hole for long hitters who can hit second shot with medium to long iron. Fairway bunkers left and right 60 yds from green, and green is guarded by a bunker on the right.

 Yd: 489	 Yd: 473	 Yd: 433
 Yd: 377	 Yd: 377	 Yd: 327

Hole 8 par 3 – Excellent par 3 hole and one of the prettiest anywhere. Elevated tee overlooks lake midway. Topped shot ends up in water. Tee shot must be played to left as bunkers protect right approach.

 Yd: 233	 Yd: 211	 Yd: 163
 Yd: 163	 Yd: 104	 Yd: 104

Hole 9 par 4/5 – Elevated tee but up hill all the way after 60 yds. Only longest hitters will see green on second shot. Large oaks to right and left of green.

 Yd: 407	 Yd: 393	 Yd: 353
 Yd: 353	 Yd: 389	 Yd: 295

Hole 10 par 5 – Dogleg right out 225 yds. Most players will have to use short irons short of lake and creek at hill bottom, 100 yds from green. Some players can get home with accurate second shot. Fairway bunkers on left 50 yds from green and bunker to right close in.

 Yd: 534	 Yd: 521	 Yd: 486
 Yd: 444	 Yd: 428	 Yd: 380

Hole 11 par 4 – Dogleg left 215 yds out. Out of bounds over green and well bunkered left and right. Average player will have to hit short of water in front of green. A tough par 4.

 Yd: 387	 Yd: 373	 Yd: 304
 Yd: 304	 Yd: 304	 Yd: 284

Hole 12 par 3 – Well bunkered hole with trouble for errant shots to left and right

 Yd: 164	 Yd: 156	 Yd: 148
 Yd: 148	 Yd: 143	 Yd: 101

Hole 13 par 5 – Narrow fairway slopes to left to big trouble and out of bounds on right. Big hitters can get home with middle iron, but green is well bunkered to left and right and out of bounds over green.

 Yd: 470	 Yd: 449	 Yd: 449
 Yd: 402	 Yd: 394	 Yd: 312

Hole 14 par 4 – Out of bounds to the right and trouble on the left, but wide fairway. Big bunker in front of green protects against roll on approaches. Big green will hold mid iron and hybrid second shots.

 Yd: 427	 Yd: 419	 Yd: 335
 Yd: 307	 Yd: 297	 Yd: 222

Hole 15 par 4 – Narrow fairway at tee widens 225 yds out. Distance on second shot deceiving and bunkers at left and front of green catch many shots. Green slopes away from shot and is hard to hold.

 Yd: 376	 Yd: 334	 Yd: 334
 Yd: 293	 Yd: 293	 Yd: 241

Hole by Hole

Hole 16 par 4 – Short par 4 but narrow fairway with woods right and left helps compensate for distance. Fairway bunker 200 yds out on left and bunkered at green front and right.

 Yd: 351	 Yd: 333	 Yd: 333
 Yd: 279	 Yd: 241	 Yd: 241

Hole 17 par 3 – Elevated tee to green behind lake. Many tournaments are lost here by not using enough club. Flag placement can also make this an extremely hard par 3.

 Yd: 186	 Yd: 153	 Yd: 153
 Yd: 139	 Yd: 139	 Yd: 83

Hole 18 par 4 – Easiest birdie hole on course although fairway bunker catches many tee shots. Bunkered left and right at green but good wedge shots will produce birdies.

 Yd: 301	 Yd: 290	 Yd: 255
 Yd: 255	 Yd: 240	 Yd: 214
